

Why to learn Programming

Programming your robots to carry out tasks and experimenting with it, makes the learning of coding enjoyable and entertaining. At the same time, it develops logical reasoning and critical thinking skills.

- Pictorial based coding environment, suitably appropriate for early years children
- Develops Logical Thinking Skills
- No prior experience needed
- Leap from computer literacy to computer science

Exploring the effectiveness of block based visual programming language in learning coding

- Creativity and innovations through coding